New Mexico Horse Rescue—A Non-profit Organization

Mission Statement

Every horse entrusted to us is a soul to be guarded and every soul is strong and free...pain and suffering are left at the entrance gate.

The Walking N Circles Ranch (WCNR) exists to provide a safe, comfortable home for horses that have been neglected, abused, or are no longer wanted by their owners. We believe in the humane treatment of animals. We provide, at our facility, safe shelter, food, daily care, grooming, medical treatments, rehabilitation, emotional care, and another chance of a dignified life. We will strive to rehabilitate and retrain equines to be adopted to special, well-screened homes, where they can, again, serve a useful purpose and be loved by others and reclaim their self-esteem. We are a non-profit organization.

While it is our goal to provide shelter and a long-term home for as many horses in need as we can, in some cases the neglect and abuse has so ravaged the horses body and soul that our only alternative is euthanasia.

A HORSE IN OUR CARE COMES FIRST. WNCR provides primary and secondary care givers for the ranch so that all horses are monitored and properly cared for without interruption. Care providers are skilled, experienced and well-trained equine handlers.
